

CHARACTER

The principle
Of the matter
Is that principles
Don't matter
In the shifting paradigm
That is your mind.
Suddenly
Talk of character
Seems useless chatter
Because your honesty
Isn't one size fits all
The definition changes
Depending on the cause
You rewrite the facts
To suit your needs
Is it any wonder
I find it hard to believe?
You say you are ethical
But I remain skeptical
And you express surprise
You never lie,
Right?
Yeah, right.
The truth is what it is
Is what I always said
But maybe it isn't
Inside your head
I guess revisionists
Sometimes win in the end
So count the money
And subtract a friend
